The Washington Center
1333 16th Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20036

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

When completed, your application should consist of the following items and be placed in the following order:

- application form, with all required signatures
- résumé
- internship request statement
- essay on topic related to one of the U.N. Millennium Development Goals
- two letters of recommendation
- transcript
- Phone interview with a Washington Center staff (may also be required)

Secure the application and supporting documents with one paperclip.
Do not use any staples

Important note about consideration for other Washington Center programs:

If you would like to be considered for The Ford Motor Company Global Scholars Program in addition to other opportunities at The Washington Center do not submit this application. Instead, submit the regular application, located at: http://www.twc.edu/students/how\_to\_apply.shtml and then email your additional essay about one of the U.N. Millennium Development Goals to enrollment@twc.edu. The additional essay is described more fully on the last page of this application.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Be enrolled in one of our affiliated schools:
U.S. Students must be enrolled as a junior or senior at one of our affiliated institutions.
International Students must attend universities or colleges in one of the following cities:
  - Saint Petersburg - Russia
  - Chennai - India
  - Johannesburg - South Africa
  - Sao Paulo or Salvador - Brazil
  - Hanoi - Vietnam
- Maintain a grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. If your GPA is below 3.0 your application may be considered with a third recommendation letter.
- Receive academic credit from your college or university for your participation in the program (not required for students attending universities overseas). The Washington Center (TWC) does not grant academic credit.
- Receive the endorsement of your campus liaison or faculty sponsor. All applications need the endorsement of the sponsoring home institutions (not required for students attending universities overseas).

International Students Additional Eligibility Requirements

International applicants must meet the same requirements as U.S. citizens, plus the following 6 additional requirements:

- 1. Passport: Provide a copy of the first page of passport.
- 2. TOEFL: Applicants must present a valid TOEFL score of 213 or higher in order to qualify (equivalent to 550 on the paper based scale).
- 3. J-1 VISA: Foreign nationals who wish to enter the U.S. to participate in TWC training programs come under a J-1 Visa. To qualify for the J-1 Visa, you must:
  - Have two years of education or work experience in a field related to the training.
  - Know English well enough to perform successfully in the proposed position.
  - Plan to leave the U.S. within 30 days after completion of the program.
  - Have not held the J-1 Visa in the Trainee category previously.

To apply for the J-1 Visa you must:

- Submit the complete TWC application before the deadline.
- Once accepted, TWC will send you the DS-2019 form with the acceptance letter.
- Pay the U.S. Department of State SEVIS fee. TWC will reimburse you for this fee.
- Make an appointment at the local U.S. Consulate in your country.
- At the appointment, submit the DS-2019 Form along with your other required materials to obtain your J-1 Visa

4. Health Insurance: All applicants must be covered by an insurance plan that satisfies the requirements of the U.S. Department of State for the duration of the training program. Once you are accepted, you will receive more information on how to comply with these requirements.

5. Financial Support: The grant will cover most of the expenses associated with the program for the selected fellows. Awardees will have to provide a credit card for the housing deposit.

6. Home Country Presence Requirement: Some participants are required to spend two years in their home country before they are allowed to apply for another U.S. Visa. This requirement applies if:

- Participation in the program was financed by the U.S. or a foreign government.
- The skills that you are going to develop are listed as "special" in the State Department skills list.
- A waiver procedure exists in certain cases.

The Washington Center actively strives for equal access to its programs for all regardless of race, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical challenge or veteran status. All Washington Center programs attempt to include a diversity of students in order to enhance the educational experience for all programs.

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

Recommendation Letters

Two letters of recommendation are required. At least one of these letters must be from a faculty member (neither should be from a family member or friend).

Letters may be given to the student, in a sealed envelope, to forward to The Washington Center, or the recommender may send the letters directly to The Washington Center.

Issues Essay

In approximately 500 words, discuss a topic related to one of the eight U.N. Millennium Development Goals and how you plan to make a contribution toward the achievement of that goal in your home nation.

Some suggestions for writing your issues essay:

- Conduct a web search among major news organization sites to find out about new and recent controversies in your field of interest.
- Ask your faculty advisor to identify developing issues in the field.
- Do not try to write a research paper. Simply demonstrate that you have a serious interest and some background knowledge about issues that are important in your field. Your essay will be shared with prospective placements, so indicate your concern for the issues, as well as your desire to learn more about them, and maintain an appropriate professional tone.

Internship Request Statement***

In approximately 100 words describe the kinds of activities you would like to be involved with during your internship and how these activities would relate to your career goals.

Résumé***

Include a one-page résumé that outlines your educational background, honors or recognitions, work experience, activities, special skills, travel, interests, etc. If you do not have a current résumé, check with your campus career center for advice on format. Please be sure to include any computer-related expertise or foreign language skills, as well as prior internships and community service activities.

Transcripts

Please submit an official transcript. The transcript may be sent separately.

* Examples of some of these components can be found at our website <http://www.twc.edu>.

GENERAL POLICIES & CANCELLATION POLICIES

Housing Refund and Cancellation Policy

Upon acceptance to The Washington Center, you will be directed to our housing website, where you can download the Housing Reservation Contract. This contract must be completed and returned with your $300 Housing Security Deposit six (6) weeks prior to your scheduled check-in date. The deposit will hold your space in housing. Once the contract has been submitted, the Housing Security Deposit will be forfeited if you cancel your housing.

If a student's financial assistance requires that he/she live in TWC housing, cancellation of housing will result in a loss of that assistance and the student's bill will be adjusted accordingly. To cancel your housing reservation, you must submit notification, in writing, to housing@twc.edu. No cancellations will be taken by phone or in person by a member of TWC staff. The Washington Center does grant partial refunds on housing under certain circumstances as specified in Table A.

Housing and Student Life Policies

You must abide by the policies in the Housing Reservation Contract, Student Code of Conduct and the following rules and regulations:

- All students are required to have health insurance and provide proof of insurance upon request.
- The Washington Center is not responsible for any loss, theft or damage to your personal property. Insuring your valuables is recommended.
- No pets are allowed in Washington Center housing facilities, with the exception of service animals used for official purposes.
- Smoking is not allowed in Washington Center housing facilities.
- The Washington Center reserves the right to change student accommodations at any time. To consolidate vacant spaces, students may be required to relocate to another apartment or housing facility.
- The Washington Center reserves the right to remove any student or guest from our housing facilities; students whose conduct is considered disruptive, harmful or potentially harmful to others or themselves, may be removed from the program immediately.
- If a student's financial assistance requires that he/she live in Washington Center housing, removal from said housing will result in a loss of financial assistance and the appropriate amount will be added to the student's bill.
- Each intern, regardless of scholarship, is required to provide a check or credit card imprint for a Housing Security Deposit of $300 with their Housing Reservation Contract. A final charge amount will be determined after all charges are received from building management. This determination will not be made until at least 10 weeks after departure.

HOUSING REFUND POLICY

Table A

If you notify TWC of Cancellation	Refund/Charge
14 or more days prior to check-in	Forfeiture of $300 Housing Security Deposit. Remainder of housing fee refunded.
Fewer than 14 days before check-in	Forfeiture of $300 Housing Security Deposit and additional $500 cancellation fee. Remainder of housing fee refunded.
On or after check-in	100% housing fee due and payable to TWC. No refund.

Internship Policies

- The application form, plus the supporting documents provided, become the property of The Washington Center and will be shown to potential supervisors of the internship. The materials will not be returned or transferred to other institutions or potential employers.
- All students are required to have health insurance and provide proof of insurance upon request.
- Students are responsible for any and all medical expenses that may be incurred, either personally or through insurance coverage.
- By signing the application, a student certifies that he or she has completed this application and that the information is accurate. Information is subject to verification.

Financial Assistance Policy

Financial assistance from The Washington Center is awarded independently from admission and is not need-based. It includes, but is not limited to, any amounts provided by the internship placement directly to the student or to The Washington Center.

In order to be considered for assistance, you must (1) live in Washington Center-provided housing and (2) successfully complete your Washington Center program (all work must be awarded a grade of C or higher). If you fail to meet either of these requirements, all financial assistance monies must be returned to The Washington Center, and you will be re-invoiced accordingly.

For more information contact TWC at info@twc.edu or call us at 800-486-8921.
